IEC/OC Membership Makes Sense for Your Organization!

California's Environmental, Health, and Safety regulatory requirements are changing faster than ever...

We provide Business Members with an opportunity to focus on compliance and issues of economic competitiveness in the face of myriad regulatory requirements.

IEC/OC is comprised of professionals from organizations like yours who have the responsibility for Environmental, Health and Safety (EH&S) regulatory compliance and enforcement.

With the complexity of EH&S management today, It makes sense to become a member of IEC/OC!

As an IEC/OC member, you will be part of a dynamic organization that can help you...

Identify current and proposed EH&S regulations and legislation that affect your business operations.

Enhance your understanding of the EH&S regulatory structure.

Communicate with other professionals and key agency personnel on EH&S issues.

Organize and streamline your EH&S management objectives.

Control your EH&S compliance costs.

Our luncheon meetings feature top speakers from government and industry and updates are provided from varied state, regional and local regulating agencies. Members may also participate in focused IEC/OC workshops, seminars, and symposiums.

IEC/OC members are also encouraged to attend co-sponsored functions of other EH&S organizations, and benefit from their member rates as well.
